COAL STRIKE CONFERENCE.

NATIONAL LABOR LEADERS IN CONVENTION.

BOYCOTT MAY BE ORDERED

Vitaly Important That West Virginia Miners Be Closed—Miners in That State Seem Indisposed to Quit Work for the Benefit of Their Pennsylvania Brethren.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 27.—To meet the crisis that now hangs in the air, the coal miners' strike, the leaders have decided upon two alternatives, by either one of which they hope to bring the strike to an end with victory on labor's side. They will first go through one last attempt to bring out all the miners of West Virginia, and if this failing, they propose to make West Virginia coal practically worthless by declaring a boycott on the product.

Indefinite arrangements as to the course to be pursued will be made by the conference of all labor leaders at Wheeling to-day, and on the results and influence of that notable assembly rest the miners' hopes to win for himself living wages.

There is some difference of opinion as to the result of the conference. Debs and Mahon claim that the published reports of the strike being a failure at Fairmont are incorrect. If the efforts of the agitators in West Virginia have really been a failure, it is believed that the railway conductors, firemen and brakemen will be able to refuse to handle West Virginia coal. There is some talk of a general sympathetic strike, but this does not meet with anything approaching even partial favor. A boycott of West Virginia coal in the event that the miners of the state decline to join the strike will be discussed at the conference.

Though the strikers deny the reports that the efforts for a general strike in the Fairmont region are a failure, the coal that is coming to Wheeling from Fairmont on the Baltimore and Ohio and West and to the lakes by the three coal carrying roads centering here, shows that the output at Fairmont is increasing.

Word from Pittsburgh indicates that famine in fuel is not likely to occur, even though the strike should last several months longer. As a matter of fact, the market is overstocked and the demand has only slightly increased. At least 6,000,000 bushels of river coal are now lying in the upper pools, about 5,000,000 bushels having been consumed and shipped during the past three weeks. The railroads are bringing in large quantities every day from this state and mines east of Pittsburgh.

Several houses were unroofed and a grain elevator was destroyed. At Kearney much minor damage was done in the city. Reports from the country have not been received, so damage to crops can only be guessed at.

Cut on Text Book Prices.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 27.—The Missouri school text book commission yesterday again received bids from the publishing houses for the elementary or common school books, the bids received July 12 having all been rejected. Whitele Reid, who is now en route from Europe, is said to have opened negotiations for a lease of the Washington house of Ambassador John Hay for a number of years, and his name is quite generally associated with the state department as Mr. Sherman's successor. Secretary Long is also said to desire a change from the navy to the state department. It is said that Attorney General McKenna is likely to succeed Justice Field, who will have reached the age limit within a few months, upon the Supreme court bench, and that Assistant Secretary of State Day will be appointed attorney general.

CRIPPLE CREEK'S RECORD.

Recorded Violent Deaths for Three and One-Half Years, 247.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., July 27.—Dr. W. D. Marlow, coroner of El Paso county, has reported that there were fifty recorded violent deaths here in 1894, fifty-one in 1895, ninety in 1896, and fifty-six to July 1 this year. These included victims of explosions, despondent prospectors' suicides and deaths from alcoholism, but the number of murders is notable.

Violent deaths have averaged one every five days for 5,000 population, and it is estimated that 100 men in town are carrying lead in their bodies as a result of unsuccessful attempts to kill. It is believed that the figures entitle Cripple Creek to be called the "toughest town in America."

FIELD EVENTS.

Fire Laddies Will Raise Funds to Purchase Uniforms.

At a called meeting of the volunteer fire department last night it was decided to give a series of field events at the fair grounds on Wednesday, August 11, for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of rubber coats and gum boots. The merchants of the city have signified their willingness to close on the afternoon of that day and assist the boys in their laudable enterprise. The First Regiment band has also tendered its services and will furnish music for the occasion. Admission to the grounds is 25 cents, ladies free. Any one of the eight events are well worth the price of admission, especially when the object sought to be attained is considered. As is well known the members of the volunteer department are subject to call at any time and it has more than once happened that a $20 suit of clothes has been spoiled in assisting to put out a $5 fire. The coat and boots will prevent this.

Following is the program to be given and it is easily seen that a considerable fund of enjoyment will be extracted therefrom:

1. Foot race, fifty yards, prize, $2.00.
2. Egg race, prize, the eggs.
3. Race for all bicycle race, quarter mile, prize, $5.00.
4. Novelty foot race by the department, eighteen members, fifty, seventy-five and one hundred yards, prize, $5, $3 and $1.
5. Volunteer department, nine member running against the fire horses, 100 yards, prize, $10.
6. Show made race, 100 yards, prize, one peck of oats and a ham sandwich.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

The following is the report from the United States department of agriculture, Oklahoma section of the weather bureau, for the week ending Monday, July 26, 1897:

The average temperature for the week, 60.4 degrees, is 4 degrees above normal. The average rainfall, 1.69, is .70 of an inch above normal.

The highest temperature, 98 degrees, occurred Sunday, the 25th. Local showers and thunder storms occurred on several days, but the heaviest rain, 1.50 inches, occurred on the 20th and was very general over both territories. The eastern section, which was needing rain most, fared best. The rainfall in that section was between three and four inches.

The rains appear to have been the lightest in the western parts of the central and northern sections, but generally through both territories rains have been sufficient to keep all growing crops in fair condition.

The rains came to late for the early corn, but a fair portion of this corn was already safe before the unusual heat of the preceding week. Late corn has improved rapidly since the rains and is now in fine condition.

Cotton is everywhere reported to be in fine shape, growing rapidly and filling with bolls, and gives promise of large yield. Kaffir, milo, maize, castor beans, late potatoes, grass, pastures and fruit are doing well and the general outlook is excellent.

Thrashing continues but farmers generally appear to be holding their grain for higher prices, as but very little is being put upon the market. Much plowing for fall crops has been done this week, but in some places the ground is getting too dry for this work at close of week. Grapes, peaches and melons are on the market in abundance.

The governor has authority to contract for their incarceration in the reform school, but it has never been done.

THE STICKS AND CHILCATS.

A War Between Indian Tribes in Alaska is Now Expected.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 27.—From a miner who came down from Alaska on the Portland it is learned that 200 Indians of the Siles tribe were contemplating coming to the coast at the head of Iyca inlet for the purpose of packing freight across the divide and relaying it across the lakes and the Yukon river to the mining fields. If the intention is carried out Alaska will have a full fledged Indian war, as the Chilcat tribe has always warned the Sticks and other inferior tribes not to come to the coast to engage in labor of any kind. They were permitted to come to the coast each year on trading expeditions, but are forbidden to engage in any industries. The work of packing freight has been monopolized by the Chilcats, and no interference by the Sticks will be tolerated.
